

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY INTERIM FEMALE Aboriginal Youth Support Worker

OFFICE LOCATED IN NANAIMO, BC

Changing Directions is accepting application for this Interim Position to cover the Nanaimo area. Primary considerations shall be the needs of the Aboriginal community. Under the supervision of the Program Manager, this position will be subjected to the policies and procedures of the Native Courtworker and Counselling Association of BC (NCCABC). The successful candidate will be subject to a Criminal Records Check and agreeing to join the British Columbia Government and Service Employees Union, which is the official bargaining agent for the NCCABC employees.

The ideal candidates should possess:

- Possess a Social Work Degree or related Human Resource field or extensive work experience with multi barrier youth
- Working experience with Aboriginal culture and a range of diverse cultures
- Good working knowledge of computers and programs
- Strong organizational, time management skills
- Have the ability to write descriptive reports and have good oral and written communications skills
- Must be personal and able to quickly establish client rapport in order to establish trusting relationships
- Must be able to exercise a considerable level of ingenuity, judgement, and analysis, use of independent thought and initiative in applying special skills and knowledge towards problem solving

In order to illustrate your ability to prepare the written material demanded by the position, please enclose a cover letter, along with your resume, indicating your knowledge and skills to:

Cherie White, Program Manager
608-495 Dunsmuir St
Nanaimo, BC V7R 6B9
Email: cherie@changingdirections.ca

Starting Salary: $50,290.74 per annum

Closing Date: October 28, 2016

While we appreciate all responses, we must advise that only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.